German Conference To Draft the Final Answer to U. S.

Bethmann-Holweig Calls Bankers and Representative Business Men To Consult With Him

BERNSTORFF SEND LONG COMMUNICATION

(By United Press)

Berlin, Sept. 17.—A most important series of conferences designed to settle for the remainder of the war all German-American difficulties, began here today following the receipt of a long communication from Ambassador Bernstorff. Chancellor von Bethmann Holweg, Foreign Secretary von Jagow and Grand Admiral von Tirpitz had the Bernstorff letter for consideration today.

Before the German answer goes forward to Washington, leading bankers, business men and representatives of all governmen tdepartments will be asked ot express their views. It is realized here that the signal decisron now rests with Germany. When that decision is drafted it is understood that it shall be the voice of the whole German people.

Ambassador Bernstorff, it was made known here today, will continue to occupy a prominent role in the final negotiations.

General von Hindenburg has captured Widay south of Dvinsk, it was officially announced this afternoon. The foreign office today handed to Ambassador Gerard a letter confirming press reports that a German submarine attacked the liner Orduna after it attempted to escape.

Hindenberg Hurls 400,000 Warriors Against Russians

German Commander Making Supreme Effort to Capture Fortresses Blocking Way to Port of Riga

RUSSIANS CLAIM GENERAL VICTORIES

(By United Press)

Petrograd, Sept. 17—Field Marshall von Hindenburg is no whurling 400,000 men supported by a great array of artillery against the Russian lines in the north in a determined attempt to capture Vilna, Dvinsk and then Riga.

The war office in an official statement today admitted that the czar's troops have been compelled to give ground slightly before these fresh assaults. It was also admitted that the Russians are falling back in the region of Tinsk but elsewhere the enemy has been defeated on every sector, the Slavs taking more than 1100 prisoners in Wednesday's engagement.

The Austrians are now resisting General Ivanhorff's advance in the Tarnopol region. They hold strong positions at the fords of the Strypa river and by extravagant waste of ammunition have blocked Russian attempts to make further crossings.

JEWISH DAY OF ATONEMENT BEGINS AT SUNSET TODAY

Most Solemn Fast Ends at Sunset Saturday

New York, Sept. 17.—Yom Kippur, or the Day of Atonement, the most solemn fast in the Jewish calendar and the one most generally observed by the Hebrews, begins at sunset this evening, and will continue until the first stars appear in the heavens tomorrow evening. It is the tenth day the month Tishri, and marks the end of the pentential period which began with the celebration of Rosh Hashanah.

Yom Kippur is held as a strict fast day by the Orthodox Jew. During twenty-four hours from sunset to set, the Orthodox Jew does not take of food or drink of any kind whatever. Men and women alike are required to fast, and the only ones who are exempted from this requirement are children, the very aged, persons in ill health, and nursing mothers.

The services in the synagogues are practically continuous. They begin at sunset on the eve of the fast, and from that time until sunset the following day the synagogues attended by the ultra-orthodox Jews are not closed. After the prescribed services on Yom Kippur eve, which is known as the Kol Nidre and is peculiarly solemn and impressive, many of the congregants remain after the rest of the congregation has departed and spend the hours in pious meditation and reading and expounding the law. The services for Yom Kippur are divided into four sections known as Shacheras, Mussaf, Mincha, and N'hila, but there is no intermission between the different sections, and the services continue until sunset, when the Shofar is sounded once only as an indication that the fast is ended.

PROVIDENCE'S ASPHALT AUTO TRACK.

Providence, Sept. 17.—The value of asphalt for speedways and roadways will be tested when the new one-mile automobile race track at Narragansett Park is opened tomorrow with a 100-mile feature contest. This material has never before been used solely in the building of a race course in this country, and experts will pay much attention to the results. Willie Haupt, Peter Henderson, Eddie O'Donnell and other noted pilots will be seen in the inaugural 100-mile race, for which a purse of $10,000 has been offered.

Mirkin's store will be closed until five o'clock tomorrow evening or account of holiday.

COLD COST CHICAGO MONEY.

(By United Press)

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Chicago's cold summer has $500,000 to proprietors ou outdoor amusement places. Summer guarden owners alone, they have figured out, will deposit $250,000 less to their credit this year than they did in 1914. The other quarter of a million has been lost by owners of picnic parks and bathing beaches. Midway gardens, with heavy brick walls, of great height, suffered less than other summer gardens. But even Midway had to close August 15.

Morris Biefeld, manager of White City, is authority for the claim that the loss will heach half a million dollars, because of cold weather and the abnormal number of rainy evenings.

The last of the biggest and most popular summer gardens and amusement parks will close Sunday—nearly a month earlier than on previous years.

MINNESOTA GUARD OFFICERS CONFER.

New Ulm, Sept. 17.—The efficiency of militia organizations and the genersalubject of national "preparedness" are to be discussed by the officers of the Minnesota National Guard, who assembled here today for two days of instruction and discussion on military subjects.

DRY BONES SHAKE AND DIM SECRETS SEE LIGHT OF DAY

County Commissioner's Office the Stage--Stall-Feds Are Dramatis Personae

Eager Listeners, With Ears to Cracks Hear Lively Discussion of Past, Present and Future.

There was a real experience meeting in the county commissioner's office yesterday afternoon when two prominent members of the stall-fed Democracy engaged in an interlocutory exposition of the facilities of mankind, ancestral deficiencies and the general unfitness of things as they are and as they ought to be.

Perhaps it was the sultry weather. Perhaps it was the imminence of that period of a day when "the worldly hope men set their hearts upon" turns ashes or prospers.

Who knows? The heat could have done it, because it was hot. The primaries could have been the impelling motive—why not? However be it, someone with a ruthless hand rattled the dry bones of a court house skeleton, and the bleached frame gave forth loud protest. For the space of seven seconds it looked like the beginnings of a handsome Dommybrook fair, but when the verbal sparring, leading, feinting, crossing and double-crossing climbed back to the center of the stage, and the game went on right merrily.

Oh men, you of the fifty-five varieties, there was some powerful campaign dope let loose in that encounter—enough, so it is said by vengeful listeners whose ears today show the streak where they leaned too heavily against door cracks, to everlastingly petrify the braying emblem and the ambitions of all its adherents hereabouts, if it could be put in understandable English and handed to the sovereign voter on election—or primary—day.

Boys, oh, boys, it was some delirious session.

LEONARDSON'S OPENING IS A TRUE STYLE EXPOSITION

Eager Throngs Fill Popular Store on First Night of Fall Display

Leonardson's opening last night was the signal for an outpouring of femininity (and masculinity, too) of all ages and degrees of servitude to view the wealth of fall apparel which was displayed throughout the artistically arranged store.

Before the doors opened at eight oclock eager visitors presented themselves at the closed doors, through which they could see sections of the displays, and sought admittance. When Thayer's orchestra began the first number of an excellent program the store was comfortably filled with visitors. Throughout the evening the crowds came and enjoyed, as only women can enjoy, the visualization of themselves bedecked in the finery which crowded upon them from every side.

Leonardson's has taken early and full advantage of fashion's decrees this fall, and the store, upstairs and down, is filled to overflowing with a selection of women's wants which show a refinement of taste and knowledge of what will be what during the coming months.

The opening display continues today and tomorrow, during which time the store's choisest offerings will be open to the inspection of all visitors.

FIRST FOOTBALL GAME OF SEASON TOMORROW

Clearfield High Meets Fast Bunch From Osceola Mills

The first football game of the season will be played tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Driving park, when the High school team meets the strong Osceola squad. The Clearfield team is rapidly rounding into shape and developing into a real live aggregation. During this week's practice much interest has been showed by the students as well as the local fans. Coach Reading is working hard getting the team into shape for the Indiana Normal game as well as for tomorrow's game, and has succeeded in installing much pep into the team.

There will be no definite lineup for tomorrow's game as all the good varsity material will be used, which will give the coach a good line on all the promising material. The line up will be announced next Friday the day before the Indiana game. The price of admission is only 25 cents including a good seat in the bleachers, and everyone shou'd come and help the boys win.

FORMER CLEARFIELD BOY IS MARRIED IN KANSAS CITY

Gordon Weaver, Son of Mrs. Paul Weaver, Weds Miss Mazie Mauser

Last Tuesday evening at eight o'clock Miss Mazie Mauser became the bride of Gordon Weaver, son of Mrs. Paul Weaver at the home of the bride's parents in Kansas City, Mo. Only the members of the immediate families were present at the ceremony which was performed by Dr. Day, of the Grand Avenue Temple.

Miss Mauser was attended by Miss Marguerite Smith as maid of honor. Powell Weaver brother of the groom acted as best man.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white satin with a court train and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley.

Immediately after the ceremony at the house, a reception was held at the Armund hotel where a wedding supper was served to about 400 guests. The hotel was tastefully decorated with crysanthemums and ferns.

After the reception the couple left for an extended wedding trip to Chicago after which they will make their home in Kansas City.

ALLPORT BOY GOES TO KEEP ORDER IN HAYTI

Earl F. Irwin on Board Tennessee Rushing Southward

With the United States marine corps field artillery bartillion, rushing on the cruiser "Tennessee" to join the marine corps forces landed in Hayti for the protection of American interests in that war-torn little isle, is Earle F. Irvin of Clearfield county.

Earle, who is the son of Mrs. Jane Irvin, of Allport, is a fighting unit of that highly efficient military arm of the government service—the United States marine corps.

Young Irvin enlisted in the marine corps at the Buffalo recruiting station, April 5, last, and already has had many and varied experiences as a member of that gallant organization, "the oldest branch of the service."

MAKES A DISCUSSION IN FAVOR OF ONE TERM

After reading the articles published in your paper the past few days on the question of the second term it does not appear to me that all has been said that might be said on this very important question.

Of course it is to be expected that many things will be said, and sometimes the reader is prone to accept it as only "oplitical stuff." Still, the voter owes it to himself to carefully weigh these statements. It is in that manner that we gain the information which enables us to intelligently exercise our rights at the polls. Possibly a fair question to ask would be "Who shall regulate the second term evil?"

The arguments in favor of the second term for a county office, such as the prothonotary for instance with its fees of upwards of $30,000. In four years, are exceedingly scarce. It is admitted that re-election of good members of the general assembly is a wise business and political policy. Length of service in legislature bodies carries prestige which works to the advantage of the community represented. It is entirely different in the case of our county offices. All of our prothonotaries have soon become proficient in the duties of the office, in fact it is largely a matter of continuing the work of the predecessor.

Almost every county official seems to get into that state of mind that might be termed "Office-itis" and is unable to pass the office on to a successor except with the help of the voter.

When the voters in the present election go to the polls it might be well to remember that:

1st: The candidate for the office of prothonotary is usually a man fairly fixed with this worlds goods and does not need the office to keep the wolf from the door, as is the case with the present incumbent.

2nd: An office that pays $25,000.00 to $30,000.00 a term ought to satisfy the most grasping man, and should likewse be convincing to the voters in favor of ONE TERM FOR ONE MAN.

3rd: No man has a mortgage on any office that the voters cannot lift.

4th: Giving the second term, or eight years, to one man makes it impossible for many equally deserving and capable citizens to satisfy their desire to serve the public.

5th: Where the official can keep the work of the office largely within his own family the income to the official is much better than where male, voting clerks and deputies are hired. Surely one term for one man is ENOUGH.

A REPUBLICAN VOTER.

AMERICAN YOUTH BY SCORES FOUND IN BRITISH ARMY

American Embassy In London Is Flooded With Requests To "Rescue" Adventurers

Parents or Relatives Must Send Money to Buy Them New Clothing as Embassy Has No Funds for That Purpose.

BY WILBUR S. FORREST.
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

London, Sept. 4.—(By Mail.)—Between fifty and sixty American youngsters have been "rescued" from the British army by the American embassy, it was learned today.

The embassy has only interfered in cases where parents of the boys have appealed for its intervention and those restored are but part of the number of ardent American miners who have enlisted under the guise of Canadians.

Notable among the erstwhile soldiers are Howard and Harold Hudson, twins, aged 16, of Bridgeport, Conn. Thanks to the embassy of Uncle Sam they are now safe and sound at home with their parents. The boys were sent to England for schooling. When war began to be the sole topic of conversation, school held no charms for the twins. They ran away and enlisted in a Sussex regiment. They told the recruiting sergeant they were eighteen and easily passed the military examination. They soldiered for many weeks. Finally word of the true situation found its way to the Hudson home in Bridgeport. An appeal was hurriedly despatched to the state department at Washington. It was passed on to the American embassy here. The twins were quickly "grabbed" and sent home.

Many of the youths whose soldier life has been interrupted by Uncle Sam still remain in England. In some cases their parents are unable to send them money to buy civilian clothing and return to America. No fund at the embassy provides for such expenditures. Relief societies in London are caring for some of them. An American steamship line has agreed to take three each voyage, provided they will work their way to New York.

Inquiry at the embassy today emphasized the importance of sending funds from America if parents wish the government to reclaim their sons from Europe's battlefields. When the American authorities find the boys they are, of course, garbed in khaki. Their citizen clothing has been left behind. Funds are needed to buy new raiment. Money is also necessary for their keep and to send them to Liverpool where they may take their turn at work on an American liner.

The embassy is making the best of a bothersome situation.

Unofficial records show that more than 2,000 Americans are enrolled in the various divisions of the British army, mainly the Canadian contingent. Over 100 are dead on the battlegrounds of Flanders. Adventure and the pure love of "a scrap" is the motive which has impelled the majority to brave their bodies to bullets, according to the general opinion. Some few have taken to heart what is declared to be "the German menace" and have enlisted to help England, believing that America would come next on the German list if the allies fail. This sertiment, however, is not the predominant one among the American volunteers. The majority are the care free young men of large American cities.

According to General Sam Hughes, Canadian Minister of Defense, recently in England, many West Point cadets have offered their services in the Canadian army and some are now serving as trained officers.

Americans are not only in the uniform of England but are working in various related capacities. Over fifty are actively connected with the Ministry of Munitions aiding in the reorganization of British industries. Some are mechanics but the majority are skilled engineers getting invaluable experience.

A small colony of young men from various American universities are at work in the Armament Buildings, Whitehall, London.

To the Voters of Clearfied County:

I will appreciate your vote for register and recorder at the primary election on Tuesday, I kindly asking you to take into consideration that I was a candidate for this office four years ago, which I feel gives me a preference at this time.

Very rsepectfully,
ED. B. CHASE.

Rockefeller Will Nc Take Part In The Big War Financing

Oil King Says He Has Refused to Ma Lone to England and Russia--- War Is Awful

REFUSES TO ENRICH SELF BY LENDING

Copyright 1915 by the United Press

Cleveland, Sept. 17.— John D. Rockefeller Senior, has definitely, positively and finally determined that he will take no part in loaning money to carry on the conflict in Europe.

In an interview obtained with the worlds richest man by the United Press it was learned today that the oil king has been offered opportunities to enrich himself further by loaning money to the warring nations and that he has absolutely refused.

"Are you expecting a call from the commission of European bankers now in New York to negotiate a bill of war loan for the allies?" Rockefeller was asked.

"No," he replied emphatically, "I certainly am not expecting a visit from the commission nor do I expect them to ask me for the war loan. They know I would not consider it." Then after a pause. "Both England and Russia have asked me for loans. They were refused."

Again Rockefeller was meditatively silent a moment, then he exclaimed fervently. "This war is awful!"

Have you met J. M. Gallaher? He is worthy of your vote next Tuesday for prothonotary. (adv.)

Seizure of Cargoes Causes Displeasure In Administration

Packers Lose $15,000,000 Worth of Cargo Through Action of Prize Court as Reported Yesterday

U. S. GOVERNMENT WILL ENTER PROTEST

(By United Press)

Washington, Sept. 17.— Extreme displeasure over the British prize court decisions confiscating $15,000,000 worth of American meats, pervaded administration circles today. Whether a sharp protest will be made by the state department depends upon the American shippers.

Officials privately admitted that the decison was of great diplomatic importance as affecting public sentiment in the negotiations for modification of England's order in council.

The administration, it can be said authoritatively stands ready to make vigorous representations at the proper time.

Chicago shippers said appeal to Great Britain from the decision of the admiralty prize court will be followed by insistance that the state department protest the action on the ground that it is a violation of international law and a blow to the freedom of the seas as contended by President Wilson. Thees were the two steps decided on today by the Chicago packers who were the hardest hit by the decision.

To the Republican Voters:

As the campaign closes I make this direct appeal to you for your vote on Tuesday next.

If I am chosen as your prothonotary, that office will be conducted in as good manner as ever in the past. I recognize the office to be a public trust. It is yours, not the office-holders. It will be kept open during all business hours. The records there are for you, and the rule of the office will be to render to you all assistence in consultating the records you desire. I will make it my business to see that every one having business in the office is given prompt, and respectful attention.

At the expiration of the term of four years, if elected I will gracefully retire from the office and yield the right to others to aspire to it.

I ask your vote for these reasons: I am a Republican, a Clearfield county man; my education and training have qualified me for the work; I believe in One Term for One Man and if elected will neither ask for nor accept a second term.

Your vote for me for prothonotary will be very much appreciated.

READY FOR GREAT MINING MEET.

San Francisco, Sept. 17.—The problem of how to conserve the mineral resources of the United States, in view of the fact that $2,000,000,000 worth of minerals of all kinds are being mined yearly with enormous waste, will be the chief topic for the consideration of hundreds of distinguished mining engineers and experts from all sections of the country, at the eighteenth annual meeting of the American Mining Congress, which is to begin its session here next Monday under the auspices of the Panama-Pacific exposition. The final details of the convention program were completed today by the committees in charge, together with all arrangements for the reception and entertainment of the many delegates.

Whether the federal government should lease the oil, coal and phosphate lands and water powers, or whether these should pass into private ownership and subject to the state taxing power, will be one of the important questions discussed by the congress. Figures will be presented to show that 10 per cent. of the estimated coal reserve of the states of Colorado, Wyoming, Montana and Utah, at 2 cents per ton royalty, would net the federal government $1,500,000,000—one-third more than the aggregate bonded indebtedness of all the states and cities of the United States.

Other subjects to receive the attention of the congress are the workmen's compensation laws, revision of mineral land laws, mine taxation, cooperation in the coal industry, metallurgical research and mine safety stations and arbitration, mediation and counciliation.

KENTUCKY W. C. T. U.

Bowling Green, Sept. 17.—Jubilation over the rapid progress made by the prohibition movement in Kentucky during the past year, several hundred members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union rallied here today for their annual state convention. The convention sessions will continue four days and will be presided over by Miss Frances H. Beauchamp, president of the state organization. Several temperance workers of national prominence are here to address the gathering.

J. M. Gallaher asks for the nomination for prothonotary on the Republican ticket on the absolute pledge of "One Term for One Man." Vote for Gallaher. Four years from now it will be another man's turn. (adv.)

PERSONA NON GRATA.

Of all the disappointing and unsatisfactory developments following the welcome announcement of Ambassador Bernstorff that the German government would yield unconditionally to the requirements of the United States in the matter of submarine attack on passenger ships, nothing has been so startling as the confessed activities and frank utterances of Ambassador Dumba relative to his efforts to threaten Austrian subjects at work in American munition factories and incidentally "to disorganize and tie up for months, if not entirely prevent, the manufacture of munitions in Bethlehem and the middle West."

When these activities and utterances were mentioned in our state department in the presence of the Austrian ambassador, he is said to have informed Secretary Lansing that he was acting under instructions for his government and that if necessary to continue in the course required of him. If the published accounts of this affair can be accepted without reserve, Dumba could scarcely have been more frankly offensive if he had said: "I am causing a serious disturbance in a foreign country, and no wonder you do not like it, but the wish of my imperial master at Vienna is the only law that I can recognize." Has an ambassador from a foreign court ever succeeded more deliberately and completely in making himself persona non grata in the country to which he was accredited?

THE "NEW DIPLOMACY."

The New York Sun publishes in the place of a leading editorial an interesting communication headed "The New Diplomacy" and written by "E. H. L." who deplores the substitution of Wilsonian for previous American methods. According to this writer, the Wilsonian method of diplomacy tends to be weak and vacillating because it waits to be guided by opinions expressed in thousands of newspapers, letters and telegrams, whereas the former diplomacy disregarded such ephemeral and contradictory "vociforations" and based its decisions upon conviction and accepted American principles.

Undoubtedly President Wilson, acting upon our accepted theories of government, has attempted to hear the voice of the people during the past few months, but whether he has actually gone any farther than previous president in this particular is open to question. As congress alone can decide on peace or war, and congressmen are responsive to dominant opinion in their districts so far as this is made clear to them, and effort to learn the people's will has always been regarded as proper and has always been made. Mr. Wilson is by no means the first president to do this and will not be the last. But the effort is attended with difficulty and in most cases fails to remove the element of uncertainty, thus requiring more or less of independent decision in the cabinet where diplomatic or other matters are concerned.

In the United States it can not be said that the opinion of the majority reveals itself promptly or expresses itself once for all without wavering. It is apt to vary according to racial extraction or the often conflicting interests of far-separated sections, and this accounts for the bewilderment, indecision and vacillation some times observed in the politician who "keeps an ear to the ground." As our government has faced the several diplomatic crisis during the past few months, the "state of public feeling" has not always been absolutely clear owing to conflicting assertion and uncertainty as to the real thought of the multitude. Even when the great majority of the newspapers quoted at a given time plainly favored a certain course, it remained true that these newspapers were relatively few compared with the whole number of even important dailies published in the United States.

It is not likely that President Wilson has wished to introduce a new diplomacy of the sort described by his critic. As a matter of fact he could not have done so even if he had desired, the difficulties being too great. At times most of us have feared that there was hesitation and too much delay, but such apprehension could readily result merely from our natural anxiety and inevitable impatience. It is important to remember in this connection that the tomes of varying speculation and deliberate guesswork sent out by industrious Washington correspondents do not represent the thought of a state department engaged in more serious and responsible work than the mere filling of printed space. As for President Wilson personally, there would appear to be little danger of his failure to think for himself and decide according to his own convictions of what is best for the country. He has not shown any weakness of this sort hitherto. On the contrary, he has been accused—and with considerable basis in fact—of being too uncompromisingly devoted to his own views and of attempting to force them on the legislators of congress with remarkable persistency.

SETS YOUNGSTERS RIGHT ABOUT SOUTH AMERICA

(By United Press)

St Louis, Sept 17.—Youth of St. Louis gazing with eyes of romance and yearning in the general direction of South America has received warning from E G. Berrien, of Callao, Peru, a business man, that your typical South American seldom throws away real money and does not gravel his garden walk with butter-colored nuggets The locale of the tale of King Midas may have been South America but, Berrien reminds, the neighborhood down there is rather large and the exact scene of the old King's gold-touching had not yet been found

Berrien's information, received in correspondence here, was timely, for St. Louis being in touch with South America by way of the Mississippi river, romantic stories of fabulous wealth to be acquired by youths of snap and fire had begun to cause vacant chairs at some of this city's tables. Young men here were said to believe that the approved way of becoming rich in South America was the poker-dice-and-gin-rickey-on-the veranda method, with natives doing the work in the broiling sun. Of course all Americans down there wear pith helmets and duck suits and had whole companies of native dancers and banjo plunkers working continuously for their entertainment. In fact the life of the young man down there was very soft.

Berrien has kicked the props from beneath many an air castle. White men have to work in South America according to his statements and salaries for clerks are not as high as a rule as those prevailing in American cities.

"Young fellows who cannot speak Spanish have scarcely any chance," he said "and scores of young men are 'down and out,' depending on the charity of their countrymen The only way to be sure of a good salary and position is to go to South America under contract to some good American firm"

He added that work and perseverance are just as important as they are in the United States

DAME FASHION IS KIND—SUMMER FUR GOOD FOR WINTER

Frills and Furbelows Fancy Enough To Suit the Queen of Madegrescar Are Popular

Riots of Color Will Escort Summer to the End of Its Path, and Usher in Hoary Winter With Skirts Above Boot Tops.

BY MARGARET MASON
(Written for the United Press)

When Sue kicks up her heels this Fall
Believe me fur will fly
For she'll wear fur upon her boots
And they'll come up s--o high.

New York, Sept. 17.—We now all have this much in common with the bus conductors—well turned limbs are no treat to us. With skirts ever going a little bit higher we are fairly surfeited with displays of hoisery.

"An inch at a time soon makes nine" is the song of the skirt and just nine inches above the toe line is the proper fall length for this garment. What it lacks in length however it will more than make up in width. Six or seven yards round is the average circumference of the hem.

Just to bring a bit of brightness in to the lives of all save the blind many skirts are lined with a vivid scarlet, green blue or orange silk from the hem to the knee. This glimpse of color is very effective flaring out as milady strides up the avenue or steps lightly into her waiting car, be it trolley or Rolls Royce.

The same tint used for the skirt lining also faces up the inside of the long flaring bell sleeves and touches up the neck line and the pockets.

Everything seems to be striving for the higher life as the days grow shorter. The skirts and collars are climbing to ear tips and hats are going them better.

Some of the collars shown are nothing short of amazing. They are cut like deep flaring cuffs and stand up uniformly around the head. It may be an open secret that lovely woman has two legs to stand on but whether she has a mouth and a chin now remains a dark mystery thanks to these new collars. For the woman who just won't stick her head into the nooso of a choken collar the dethe form of a collar open in front but jutting up all around the base of the brains and aural appendages behind.

All the fur collare on suits, gowns and coats are high and swathing as the pocket book will permit. Positively their only limits seem financial. What fur is left over from collars cuffs and wide banding on the hems of the skirts is used to encircle the tops of the new high shoes.

Of a necessity to keep up with the skirt line the boots and shoes have had to come up in the world also and they are proportionately higher than last years models.

The smart magpie effects of black kid or patent leather with pipings and buttons of white have bandings of white fur around the top. With her tootsies thus embellished with the relico of a cats minth life the winsome wearer may well be designated as "pussy footed."

Bronze boots banded in skunk are simply stunning and a pair of pearl gray kid dress boots with chinchilla are exquisite. All white ones are also shown with the white fur tops for wear with the stunning white velours broad cloth suits deeply banded a la Pusse with wide bands of white fox.

Buttons or laces are a mere matter of personal fancy as to shoe fastenings this fall and winter. Both are equally good just as long as they know their proper place and keep it. No more straying from the middle front to side or back ways. Colored tops will still be worn in moderation but will oftener be developed in soft tinted kid than suede or cloth. Heels will be high French affairs and vamps are shorter.

As for hoisery, it is a perfect riot of color and design. One bronze pair not content with a pair of conservative clocks one on each side, abolishes the side clocks and has three up the front. This timely style is sure to be striking.

Others are embroidered in contrasting shades and stripes, checks and dots are conspicuous details. Open works and lace effects are favored for evening wear as are metallic embroidered ohse for wear with the metallic brocade gowns and gold and silver brocaded slippers.

Plain sheer stockings of solid but gorgeous hues are favored for wear with the high shoes and often match up the linings of the skirts.

Oh theres bound to be a lot of excitement on foot when the new fur trimmed boots and gold hosiery gets in place.

A DESERVING MAN

Actively Supported His Successful Opponent Four Years Ago and Now Asks His Party for the Nomination

Four years ago Amos H. Rumberger, of Houtzdale, made the primary campaign for country treasurer on the Republican ticket. He was defeated for the nomination by Miles Wrigley, of Mahaffey, the present treasurer of the county. From the day that it was known that Mr. Wrigley would be the standard bearer of his party for the office of treasurer Mr. Rumberger, with characteristic fairness and loyalty, turned in for the entire ticket, contributing in every manner he commanded to the election of his late competitor. Today Mr. Rumberger is asking the voters of his party to give him the nomination for the office. It is quite generally conceded that in view of the results of his first campaign and his attitude at that time and since, that it would be but just and fair to accord him this honor.

Amos H. Rumberger has for about twenty-five years been engaged in the hardware business in Houtzdale. He has been an active man in his community affairs, has served as the president of local business, social and fraternal organizations, and is known all over the county. The section of the county in which he resides naturally knows him best, and there, in his home community he is respected by and acknowledged the friends of the great majority of them.

Mr. Rumberger has made a clean, honorable contest for this nomination. It is needless to say that he will appreciate the nomination at the hands of his party. It is his nature to appreciate favors at the hands of his friends.

In his home community Mr. Rumberger enjoys the active support of all of the leading business men and the best wishes of everyone for his success, regardless of their party affiliations.

In point of education, business experience, fairness of judgment and his well-known capacity for work, Mr. Rumberger is eminently fitted for this office. It is conceded on every hand that his nomination will insure the election of a Republican to the office of county treasurer. Vote for Rumberger for treasurer! He is capable! He is worthy! He and his friends will appreciate the favor!

FORMER DUBOIS GIRL NOW BRIDE OF INDIA MILLIONAIRE

Miss Daisy Litsinger Leaps From Chorus to Wealth

The romance of Miss Daisy Litsinger formerly of DuBois culminated a few days ago, when she was married to Ford Humbolt Keith a young millionaire of India. Mr. Keith met Miss Litsinger two years ago, when she was singing in a chorus in a Paris theatre. Mr. Keith fell in love with her at their first meeting and proposed marriage to her.

She refused him, however on the grounds that she did not desire to live in India. Three times afterward the persistent Keith proposed, once in Chicago, once in London and then in Philadelphia, a few weeks ago where his persistence was rewarded. The couple were married last week and are now on their wedding trip to their future home in Indiana.

PRESBYTERIANS ARE TO HOLD SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY

Next Sunday the Presbyterians will hold their Sunday School rally at 11:45 and their Young People's Meeting rally at 7 o'clock. The past year has been a record breaker for the Sunday school, and the officers wish to make this year better still.

There has only been three Sundays during the past year that the attendance has not been better than that of the corresponding Sunday of the year before. There has been an increase of between 25 and 50 per cent. in the attendance during the past year. Porfessor Youngman's bible class has made the greatest gain of any class in the school, having reached the 50 mark in attendance.

The pastor wishes next Sunday to be a red letter day in both the school and the Young People's meeting, and wishes all the members to strive to be there.

The monument is of Quincy granite and stands 15 feet high. A bronze tablet relates the story of the battle, giving the dates and the names of those who fell in the conflict.

CLEARFIELD FIREMEN PAY HIGH TRIBUTE TO KLINE

Endorse Him For County Treasurer at Recent Meeting

Al Kline, the popular Clearfield business man, who is a candidate for the office of county treasurer on the Republican ticket, received a warm endorsement from the Firemen of Clearfield at a recent meeting of that organization. Recognizing his sterling worth, the Firemen pledged themselves to vote for Mr. Kline at the primaries, and to give him their undivided support should he win the nomination next week. This endorsemet was entirely unsolicited by Mr Kline, and is a distinct compliment to him which may serve as a guide to the voters of the county who may want to know how he stands in his own home town. Mr. Kline is the only one of the 55 candidates now in the field who has been similarly honored.

Mr. Kline stands for a straight business administration of the county's affairs. A successful business man himself, he is qualified in every respect for the position to which he aspires, and will render efficient honest and loyal service to the county if he is elected.

ONE CENT A MEAL FOR ONE YEAR.

In almost every house there are practically one thousand meals a year prepared on the stove. Many people hesitate about paying five or ten dollars more to secure a reliable range—one that will cook these thousand meals a year with the least trouble and at the lowest cost. If you should add one cent to the cose of every meal for the first year only, you would soon make up the difference between the cheap range and the range that will last a lifetime.

Suppose your cheap range uses one cent's more of fuel in cooking each meal, or only three cents' worth more a day. In one year this range has cost you ten dollars extra—ten dollars more for fuel than the better range. Every year means that much more money burned up.

Suppose the better range does cost ten dollars more at first than the cheap one. The extra cost is nothing—it amounts to only one cent a meal. It will save you one cent a meal in fuel alone. In one year it will save the extra cost, and in ten years it will save you one hundred dollars, not counting what you save missing big repair bills.

You can open a bank account in your kitchen by buying a South Bend Malleable Range.

RUSSIANS CLAIM GENERAL VICTORIES

(By United Press)

Petrograd, Sept. 17—Field Marshall von Hindenburg is no whurling 400,000 men supported by a great array of artillery against the Russian lines in the north in a determined attempt to capture Vilna, Dvinsk and then Riga.

The war office in an official statement today admitted that the czar's troops have been compelled to give ground slightly before these fresh assaults. It was also admitted that the Russians are falling back in the region of Tinsk but elsewhere the enemy has been defeated on every sector, the Slavs taking more than 1100 prisoners in Wednesday's engagement.

The Austrians are now resisting General Ivanhorff's advance in the Tarnopol region. They hold strong positions at the fords of the Strypa river and by extravagant waste of ammunition have blocked Russian attempts to make further crossings.

JEWISH DAY OF ATONEMENT BEGINS AT SUNSET TODAY

Most Solemn Fast Ends at Sunset Saturday

New York, Sept. 17.—Yom Kippur, or the Day of Atonement, the most solemn fast in the Jewish calendar and the one most generally observed by the Hebrews, begins at sunset this evening, and will continue until the first stars appear in the heavens tomorrow evening. It is the tenth day the month Tishri, and marks the end of the pentential period which began with the celebration of Rosh Hashanah.

Yom Kippur is held as a strict fast day by the Orthodox Jew. During twenty-four hours from sunset to set, the Orthodox Jew does not take of food or drink of any kind whatever. Men and women alike are required to fast, and the only ones who are exempted from this requirement are children, the very aged, persons in ill health, and nursing mothers.

The services in the synagogues are practically continuous. They begin at sunset on the eve of the fast, and from that time until sunset the following day the synagogues attended by the ultra-orthodox Jews are not closed. After the prescribed services on Yom Kippur eve, which is known as the Kol Nidre and is peculiarly solemn and impressive, many of the congregants remain after the rest of the congregation has departed and spend the hours in pious meditation and reading and expounding the law. The services for Yom Kippur are divided into four sections known as Shacheras, Mussaf, Mincha, and N'hila, but there is no intermission between the different sections, and the services continue until sunset, when the Shofar is sounded once only as an indication that the fast is ended.

PROVIDENCE'S ASPHALT AUTO TRACK.

Providence, Sept. 17.—The value of asphalt for speedways and roadways will be tested when the new one-mile automobile race track at Narragansett Park is opened tomorrow with a 100-mile feature contest. This material has never before been used solely in the building of a race course in this country, and experts will pay much attention to the results. Willie Haupt, Peter Henderson, Eddie O'Donnell and other noted pilots will be seen in the inaugural 100-mile race, for which a purse of $10,000 has been offered.

Mirkin's store will be closed until five o'clock tomorrow evening or account of holiday.

COLD COST CHICAGO MONEY.

(By United Press)

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Chicago's cold summer has $500,000 to proprietors ou outdoor amusement places. Summer guarden owners alone, they have figured out, will deposit $250,000 less to their credit this year than they did in 1914. The other quarter of a million has been lost by owners of picnic parks and bathing beaches. Midway gardens, with heavy brick walls, of great height, suffered less than other summer gardens. But even Midway had to close August 15.

Morris Biefeld, manager of White City, is authority for the claim that the loss will heach half a million dollars, because of cold weather and the abnormal number of rainy evenings.

The last of the biggest and most popular summer gardens and amusement parks will close Sunday—nearly a month earlier than on previous years.

DRY BONES SHAKE AND DIM SECRETS SEE LIGHT OF DAY

County Commissioner's Office the Stage--Stall-Feds Are Dramatis Personae

Eager Listeners, With Ears to Cracks Hear Lively Discussion of Past, Present and Future.

There was a real experience meeting in the county commissioner's office yesterday afternoon when two prominent members of the stall-fed Democracy engaged in an interlocutory exposition of the facilities of mankind, ancestral deficiencies and the general unfitness of things as they are and as they ought to be.

Perhaps it was the sultry weather. Perhaps it was the imminence of that period of a day when "the worldly hope men set their hearts upon" turns ashes or prospers.

Who knows? The heat could have done it, because it was hot. The primaries could have been the impelling motive—why not? However be it, someone with a ruthless hand rattled the dry bones of a court house skeleton, and the bleached frame gave forth loud protest. For the space of seven seconds it looked like the beginnings of a handsome Dommybrook fair, but when the verbal sparring, leading, feinting, crossing and double-crossing climbed back to the center of the stage, and the game went on right merrily.

Oh men, you of the fifty-five varieties, there was some powerful campaign dope let loose in that encounter—enough, so it is said by vengeful listeners whose ears today show the streak where they leaned too heavily against door cracks, to everlastingly petrify the braying emblem and the ambitions of all its adherents hereabouts, if it could be put in understandable English and handed to the sovereign voter on election—or primary—day.

Boys, oh, boys, it was some delirious session.

LEONARDSON'S OPENING IS A TRUE STYLE EXPOSITION

Eager Throngs Fill Popular Store on First Night of Fall Display

Leonardson's opening last night was the signal for an outpouring of femininity (and masculinity, too) of all ages and degrees of servitude to view the wealth of fall apparel which was displayed throughout the artistically arranged store.

Before the doors opened at eight oclock eager visitors presented themselves at the closed doors, through which they could see sections of the displays, and sought admittance. When Thayer's orchestra began the first number of an excellent program the store was comfortably filled with visitors. Throughout the evening the crowds came and enjoyed, as only women can enjoy, the visualization of themselves bedecked in the finery which crowded upon them from every side.

Leonardson's has taken early and full advantage of fashion's decrees this fall, and the store, upstairs and down, is filled to overflowing with a selection of women's wants which show a refinement of taste and knowledge of what will be what during the coming months.

The opening display continues today and tomorrow, during which time the store's choisest offerings will be open to the inspection of all visitors.

FIRST FOOTBALL GAME OF SEASON TOMORROW

Clearfield High Meets Fast Bunch From Osceola Mills

The first football game of the season will be played tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Driving park, when the High school team meets the strong Osceola squad. The Clearfield team is rapidly rounding into shape and developing into a real live aggregation. During this week's practice much interest has been showed by the students as well as the local fans. Coach Reading is working hard getting the team into shape for the Indiana Normal game as well as for tomorrow's game, and has succeeded in installing much pep into the team.

There will be no definite lineup for tomorrow's game as all the good varsity material will be used, which will give the coach a good line on all the promising material. The line up will be announced next Friday the day before the Indiana game. The price of admission is only 25 cents including a good seat in the bleachers, and everyone shou'd come and help the boys win.

FORMER CLEARFIELD BOY IS MARRIED IN KANSAS CITY

Gordon Weaver, Son of Mrs. Paul Weaver, Weds Miss Mazie Mauser

Last Tuesday evening at eight o'clock Miss Mazie Mauser became the bride of Gordon Weaver, son of Mrs. Paul Weaver at the home of the bride's parents in Kansas City, Mo. Only the members of the immediate families were present at the ceremony which was performed by Dr. Day, of the Grand Avenue Temple.

Miss Mauser was attended by Miss Marguerite Smith as maid of honor. Powell Weaver brother of the groom acted as best man.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white satin with a court train and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley.

Immediately after the ceremony at the house, a reception was held at the Armund hotel where a wedding supper was served to about 400 guests. The hotel was tastefully decorated with crysanthemums and ferns.

After the reception the couple left for an extended wedding trip to Chicago after which they will make their home in Kansas City.

ALLPORT BOY GOES TO KEEP ORDER IN HAYTI

Earl F. Irwin on Board Tennessee Rushing Southward

With the United States marine corps field artillery bartillion, rushing on the cruiser "Tennessee" to join the marine corps forces landed in Hayti for the protection of American interests in that war-torn little isle, is Earle F. Irvin of Clearfield county.

Earle, who is the son of Mrs. Jane Irvin, of Allport, is a fighting unit of that highly efficient military arm of the government service—the United States marine corps.

Young Irvin enlisted in the marine corps at the Buffalo recruiting station, April 5, last, and already has had many and varied experiences as a member of that gallant organization, "the oldest branch of the service."

MAKES A DISCUSSION IN FAVOR OF ONE TERM

After reading the articles published in your paper the past few days on the question of the second term it does not appear to me that all has been said that might be said on this very important question.

Of course it is to be expected that many things will be said, and sometimes the reader is prone to accept it as only "oplitical stuff." Still, the voter owes it to himself to carefully weigh these statements. It is in that manner that we gain the information which enables us to intelligently exercise our rights at the polls. Possibly a fair question to ask would be "Who shall regulate the second term evil?"

The arguments in favor of the second term for a county office, such as the prothonotary for instance with its fees of upwards of $30,000. In four years, are exceedingly scarce. It is admitted that re-election of good members of the general assembly is a wise business and political policy. Length of service in legislature bodies carries prestige which works to the advantage of the community represented. It is entirely different in the case of our county offices. All of our prothonotaries have soon become proficient in the duties of the office, in fact it is largely a matter of continuing the work of the predecessor.

Almost every county official seems to get into that state of mind that might be termed "Office-itis" and is unable to pass the office on to a successor except with the help of the voter.

When the voters in the present election go to the polls it might be well to remember that:

1st: The candidate for the office of prothonotary is usually a man fairly fixed with this worlds goods and does not need the office to keep the wolf from the door, as is the case with the present incumbent.

2nd: An office that pays $25,000.00 to $30,000.00 a term ought to satisfy the most grasping man, and should likewse be convincing to the voters in favor of ONE TERM FOR ONE MAN.

3rd: No man has a mortgage on any office that the voters cannot lift.

4th: Giving the second term, or eight years, to one man makes it impossible for many equally deserving and capable citizens to satisfy their desire to serve the public.

5th: Where the official can keep the work of the office largely within his own family the income to the official is much better than where male, voting clerks and deputies are hired. Surely one term for one man is ENOUGH.

A REPUBLICAN VOTER.

AMERICAN YOUTH BY SCORES FOUND IN BRITISH ARMY

American Embassy In London Is Flooded With Requests To "Rescue" Adventurers

Parents or Relatives Must Send Money to Buy Them New Clothing as Embassy Has No Funds for That Purpose.

BY WILBUR S. FORREST.
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

London, Sept. 4.—(By Mail.)—Between fifty and sixty American youngsters have been "rescued" from the British army by the American embassy, it was learned today.

The embassy has only interfered in cases where parents of the boys have appealed for its intervention and those restored are but part of the number of ardent American miners who have enlisted under the guise of Canadians.

Notable among the erstwhile soldiers are Howard and Harold Hudson, twins, aged 16, of Bridgeport, Conn. Thanks to the embassy of Uncle Sam they are now safe and sound at home with their parents. The boys were sent to England for schooling. When war began to be the sole topic of conversation, school held no charms for the twins. They ran away and enlisted in a Sussex regiment. They told the recruiting sergeant they were eighteen and easily passed the military examination. They soldiered for many weeks. Finally word of the true situation found its way to the Hudson home in Bridgeport. An appeal was hurriedly despatched to the state department at Washington. It was passed on to the American embassy here. The twins were quickly "grabbed" and sent home.

Many of the youths whose soldier life has been interrupted by Uncle Sam still remain in England. In some cases their parents are unable to send them money to buy civilian clothing and return to America. No fund at the embassy provides for such expenditures. Relief societies in London are caring for some of them. An American steamship line has agreed to take three each voyage, provided they will work their way to New York.

Inquiry at the embassy today emphasized the importance of sending funds from America if parents wish the government to reclaim their sons from Europe's battlefields. When the American authorities find the boys they are, of course, garbed in khaki. Their citizen clothing has been left behind. Funds are needed to buy new raiment. Money is also necessary for their keep and to send them to Liverpool where they may take their turn at work on an American liner.

The embassy is making the best of a bothersome situation.

Unofficial records show that more than 2,000 Americans are enrolled in the various divisions of the British army, mainly the Canadian contingent. Over 100 are dead on the battlegrounds of Flanders. Adventure and the pure love of "a scrap" is the motive which has impelled the majority to brave their bodies to bullets, according to the general opinion. Some few have taken to heart what is declared to be "the German menace" and have enlisted to help England, believing that America would come next on the German list if the allies fail. This sertiment, however, is not the predominant one among the American volunteers. The majority are the care free young men of large American cities.

According to General Sam Hughes, Canadian Minister of Defense, recently in England, many West Point cadets have offered their services in the Canadian army and some are now serving as trained officers.

Americans are not only in the uniform of England but are working in various related capacities. Over fifty are actively connected with the Ministry of Munitions aiding in the reorganization of British industries. Some are mechanics but the majority are skilled engineers getting invaluable experience.

A small colony of young men from various American universities are at work in the Armament Buildings, Whitehall, London.

To the Voters of Clearfied County:

I will appreciate your vote for register and recorder at the primary election on Tuesday, I kindly asking you to take into consideration that I was a candidate for this office four years ago, which I feel gives me a preference at this time.

Very rsepectfully,
ED. B. CHASE.

Rockefeller Will Nc Take Part In The Big War Financing

Oil King Says He Has Refused to Ma Lone to England and Russia--- War Is Awful

REFUSES TO ENRICH SELF BY LENDING

Copyright 1915 by the United Press

Cleveland, Sept. 17.— John D. Rockefeller Senior, has definitely, positively and finally determined that he will take no part in loaning money to carry on the conflict in Europe.

In an interview obtained with the worlds richest man by the United Press it was learned today that the oil king has been offered opportunities to enrich himself further by loaning money to the warring nations and that he has absolutely refused.

"Are you expecting a call from the commission of European bankers now in New York to negotiate a bill of war loan for the allies?" Rockefeller was asked.

"No," he replied emphatically, "I certainly am not expecting a visit from the commission nor do I expect them to ask me for the war loan. They know I would not consider it." Then after a pause. "Both England and Russia have asked me for loans. They were refused."

Again Rockefeller was meditatively silent a moment, then he exclaimed fervently. "This war is awful!"

Have you met J. M. Gallaher? He is worthy of your vote next Tuesday for prothonotary. (adv.)

Seizure of Cargoes Causes Displeasure In Administration

Packers Lose $15,000,000 Worth of Cargo Through Action of Prize Court as Reported Yesterday

U. S. GOVERNMENT WILL ENTER PROTEST

(By United Press)

Washington, Sept. 17.— Extreme displeasure over the British prize court decisions confiscating $15,000,000 worth of American meats, pervaded administration circles today. Whether a sharp protest will be made by the state department depends upon the American shippers.

Officials privately admitted that the decison was of great diplomatic importance as affecting public sentiment in the negotiations for modification of England's order in council.

The administration, it can be said authoritatively stands ready to make vigorous representations at the proper time.

Chicago shippers said appeal to Great Britain from the decision of the admiralty prize court will be followed by insistance that the state department protest the action on the ground that it is a violation of international law and a blow to the freedom of the seas as contended by President Wilson. Thees were the two steps decided on today by the Chicago packers who were the hardest hit by the decision.

To the Republican Voters:

As the campaign closes I make this direct appeal to you for your vote on Tuesday next.

If I am chosen as your prothonotary, that office will be conducted in as good manner as ever in the past. I recognize the office to be a public trust. It is yours, not the office-holders. It will be kept open during all business hours. The records there are for you, and the rule of the office will be to render to you all assistence in consultating the records you desire. I will make it my business to see that every one having business in the office is given prompt, and respectful attention.

At the expiration of the term of four years, if elected I will gracefully retire from the office and yield the right to others to aspire to it.

I ask your vote for these reasons: I am a Republican, a Clearfield county man; my education and training have qualified me for the work; I believe in One Term for One Man and if elected will neither ask for nor accept a second term.

Your vote for me for prothonotary will be very much appreciated.

J. M. GALLAHER,
Republican .Candidate for Prothonotary.

READY FOR GREAT MINING MEET.

San Francisco, Sept. 17.—The problem of how to conserve the mineral resources of the United States, in view of the fact that $2,000,000,000 worth of minerals of all kinds are being mined yearly with enormous waste, will be the chief topic for the consideration of hundreds of distinguished mining engineers and experts from all sections of the country, at the eighteenth annual meeting of the American Mining Congress, which is to begin its session here next Monday under the auspices of the Panama-Pacific exposition. The final details of the convention program were completed today by the committees in charge, together with all arrangements for the reception and entertainment of the many delegates.

Whether the federal government should lease the oil, coal and phosphate lands and water powers, or whether these should pass into private ownership and subject to the state taxing power, will be one of the important questions discussed by the congress. Figures will be presented to show that 10 per cent. of the estimated coal reserve of the states of Colorado, Wyoming, Montana and Utah, at 2 cents per ton royalty, would net the federal government $1,500,000,000—one-third more than the aggregate bonded indebtedness of all the states and cities of the United States.

Other subjects to receive the attention of the congress are the workmen's compensation laws, revision of mineral land laws, mine taxation, cooperation in the coal industry, metallurgical research and mine safety stations and arbitration, mediation and counciliation.

KENTUCKY W. C. T. U.

Bowling Green, Sept. 17.—Enthusiasm over the rapid progress made by the prohibition movement in Kentucky during the past year, several hundred members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union rallied here today for their annual state convention. The convention sessions will continue four days and will be presided over by Miss Frances H. Beauchamp, president of the state organization. Several temperance workers of national prominence are here to address the gathering.

J. M. Gallaher asks for the nomination for prothonotary on the Republican ticket on the absolute pledge of "One Term for One Man." Vote for Gallaher. Four years from now it will be another man's turn. (adv.)

PERSONA NON GRATA.

Of all the disappointing and unsatisfactory developments following the welcome announcement of Ambassador Bernstorff that the German government would yield unconditionally to the requirements of the United States in the matter of submarine attack on passenger ships, nothing has been so startling as the confessed activities and frank utterances of Ambassador Dumba relative to his efforts to threaten Austrian subjects at work in American munition factories and incidentally "to disorganize and tie up for months, if not entirely prevent, the manufacture of munitions in Bethlehem and the middle West."

When these activities and utterances were mentioned in our state department in the presence of the Austrian ambassador, he is said to have informed Secretary Lansing that he was acting under instructions for his government and that if necessary to continue in the course required of him. If the published accounts of this affair can be accepted without reserve, Dumba could scarcely have been more frankly offensive if he had said: "I am causing a serious disturbance in a foreign country, and no wonder you do not like it, but the wish of my imperial master at Vienna is the only law that I can recognize." Has an ambassador from a foreign court ever succeeded more deliberately and completely in making himself persona non grata in the country to which he was accredited?

THE "NEW DIPLOMACY."

The New York Sun publishes in the place of a leading editorial an interesting communication headed "The New Diplomacy" and written by "E. H. L." who deplores the substitution of Wilsonian for previous American methods. According to this writer, the Wilsonian method of diplomacy tends to be weak and vacillating because it waits to be guided by opinions expressed in thousands of newspapers, letters and telegrams, whereas the former diplomacy disregarded such ephemeral and contradictory "vociforations" and based its decisions upon conviction and accepted American principles.

Undoubtedly President Wilson, acting upon our accepted theories of government, has attempted to hear the voice of the people during the past few months, but whether he has actually gone any farther than previous president in this particular is open to question. As congress alone can decide on peace or war, and congressmen are responsive to dominant opinion in their districts so far as this is made clear to them, and effort to learn the people's will has always been regarded as proper and has always been made. Mr. Wilson is by no means the first president to do this and will not be the last. But the effort is attended with difficulty and in most cases fails to remove the element of uncertainty, thus requiring more or less of independent decision in the cabinet where diplomatic or other matters are concerned.

In the United States it can not be said that the opinion of the majority reveals itself promptly or expresses itself once for all without wavering. It is apt to vary according to racial extraction or the often conflicting interests of far-separated sections, and this accounts for the bewilderment, indecision and vacillation some times observed in the politician who "keeps an ear to the ground." As our government has faced the several diplomatic crisis during the past few months, the "state of public feeling" has not always been absolutely clear owing to conflicting assertion and uncertainty as to the real thought of the multitude. Even when the great majority of the newspapers quoted at a given time plainly favored a certain course, it remained true that these newspapers were relatively few compared with the whole number of even important dailies published in the United States.

It is not likely that President Wilson has wished to introduce a new diplomacy of the sort described by his critic. As a matter of fact he could not have done so even if he had desired, the difficulties being too great. At times most of us have feared that there was hesitation and too much delay, but such apprehension could readily result merely from our natural anxiety and inevitable impatience. It is important to remember in this connection that the tomes of varying speculation and deliberate guesswork sent out by industrious Washington correspondents do not represent the thought of a state department engaged in more serious and responsible work than the mere filling of printed space. As for President Wilson personally, there would appear to be little danger of his failure to think for himself and decide according to his own convictions of what is best for the country. He has not shown any weakness of this sort hitherto. On the contrary, he has been accused—and with considerable basis in fact—of being too uncompromisingly devoted to his own views and of attempting to force them on the legislators of congress with remarkable persistency.

SETS YOUNGSTERS RIGHT ABOUT SOUTH AMERICA

(By United Press)

St Louis, Sept 17.—Youth of St. Louis gazing with eyes of romance and yearning in the general direction of South America has received warning from E G. Berrien, of Callao, Peru, a business man, that your typical South American seldom throws away real money and does not gravel his garden walk with butter-colored nuggets The locale of the tale of King Midas may have been South America but, Berrien reminds, the neighborhood down there is rather large and the exact scene of the old King's gold-touching had not yet been found

Berrien's information, received in correspondence here, was timely, for St. Louis being in touch with South America by way of the Mississippi river, romantic stories of fabulous wealth to be acquired by youths of snap and fire had begun to cause vacant chairs at some of this city's tables. Young men here were said to believe that the approved way of becoming rich in South America was the poker-dice-and-gin-rickey-on-the veranda method, with natives doing the work in the broiling sun. Of course all Americans down there wear pith helmets and duck suits and had whole companies of native dancers and banjo plunkers working continuously for their entertainment. In fact the life of the young man down there was very soft.

Berrien has kicked the props from beneath many an air castle. White men have to work in South America according to his statements and salaries for clerks are not as high as a rule as those prevailing in American cities.

"Young fellows who cannot speak Spanish have scarcely any chance," he said "and scores of young men are 'down and out,' depending on the charity of their countrymen The only way to be sure of a good salary and position is to go to South America under contract to some good American firm"

He added that work and perseverance are just as important as they are in the United States

DAME FASHION IS KIND—SUMMER FUR GOOD FOR WINTER

Frills and Furbelows Fancy Enough To Suit the Queen of Madegrescar Are Popular

Riots of Color Will Escort Summer to the End of Its Path, and Usher in Hoary Winter With Skirts Above Boot Tops.

BY MARGARET MASON
(Written for the United Press)

When Sue kicks up her heels this Fall
Believe me fur will fly
For she'll wear fur upon her boots
And they'll come up s--o high.

New York, Sept. 17.—We now all have this much in common with the bus conductors—well turned limbs are no treat to us. With skirts ever going a little bit higher we are fairly surfeited with displays of hoisery.

"An inch at a time soon makes nine" is the song of the skirt and just nine inches above the toe line is the proper fall length for this garment. What it lacks in length however it will more than make up in width. Six or seven yards round is the average circumference of the hem.

Just to bring a bit of brightness in to the lives of all save the blind many skirts are lined with a vivid scarlet, green blue or orange silk from the hem to the knee. This glimpse of color is very effective flaring out as milady strides up the avenue or steps lightly into her waiting car, be it trolley or Rolls Royce.

The same tint used for the skirt lining also faces up the inside of the long flaring bell sleeves and touches up the neck line and the pockets.

Everything seems to be striving for the higher life as the days grow shorter. The skirts and collars are climbing to ear tips and hats are going them better.

Some of the collars shown are nothing short of amazing. They are cut like deep flaring cuffs and stand up uniformly around the head. It may be an open secret that lovely woman has two legs to stand on but whether she has a mouth and a chin now remains a dark mystery thanks to these new collars. For the woman who just won't stick her head into the nooso of a choken collar the dethe form of a collar open in front but jutting up all around the base of the brains and aural appendages behind.

All the fur collare on suits, gowns and coats are high and swathing as the pocket book will permit. Positively their only limits seem financial. What fur is left over from collars cuffs and wide banding on the hems of the skirts is used to encircle the tops of the new high shoes.

Of a necessity to keep up with the skirt line the boots and shoes have had to come up in the world also and they are proportionately higher than last years models.

The smart magpie effects of black kid or patent leather with pipings and buttons of white have bandings of white fur around the top. With her tootsies thus embellished with the relico of a cats minth life the winsome wearer may well be designated as "pussy footed."

Bronze boots banded in skunk are simply stunning and a pair of pearl gray kid dress boots with chinchilla are exquisite. All white ones are also shown with the white fur tops for wear with the stunning white velours broad cloth suits deeply banded a la Pusse with wide bands of white fox.

Buttons or laces are a mere matter of personal fancy as to shoe fastenings this fall and winter. Both are equally good just as long as they know their proper place and keep it. No more straying from the middle front to side or back ways. Colored tops will still be worn in moderation but will oftener be developed in soft tinted kid than suede or cloth. Heels will be high French affairs and vamps are shorter.

As for hoisery, it is a perfect riot of color and design. One bronze pair not content with a pair of conservative clocks one on each side, abolishes the side clocks and has three up the front. This timely style is sure to be striking.

Others are embroidered in contrasting shades and stripes, checks and dots are conspicuous details. Open works and lace effects are favored for evening wear as are metallic embroidered ohse for wear with the metallic brocade gowns and gold and silver brocaded slippers.

Plain sheer stockings of solid but gorgeous hues are favored for wear with the high shoes and often match up the linings of the skirts.

Oh theres bound to be a lot of excitement on foot when the new fur trimmed boots and gold hosiery gets in place.

A DESERVING MAN

Actively Supported His Successful Opponent Four Years Ago and Now Asks His Party for the Nomination

Four years ago Amos H. Rumber-ger, of Houtzdale, made the primary campaign for country treasurer on the Republican ticket. He was de-feated for the nomination by Miles Wrigley, of Mahaffey, the present treasurer of the county. From the day that it was known that Mr. Wrigley would be the standard bearer of his party for the office of treas-urer Mr. Rumberger, with character-istic fairness and loyalty, turned in for the entire ticket, contributing in every manner he commanded to the election of his late competitor. To-day Mr. Rumberger is asking the voters of his party to give him the nomination for the office. It is quite generally conceded that in view of the results of his first campaign and his attitude at that time and since, that it would be but just and fair to ac-cord him this honor.

Amos H. Rumberger has for about twenty-five years been engaged in the hardware business in Houtzdale. He has been an active man in his community affairs, has served as the president of local business, social and fraternal organizations, and is known all over the county. The section of the county in which he resides natur-ally knows him best, and there, in his home community he is respected by and acknowledged the friends of the great majority of them.

Mr. Rumberger has made a clean, honorable contest for this nomination. It is needless to say that he will ap-preciate the nomination at the hands of his party. It is his nature to ap-preciate favors at the hands of his friends.

In his home community Mr. Rum-berger enjoys the active support of all of the leading business men and the best wishes of everyone for his success, regardless of their party af-filiations.

In point of education, business ex-perience, fairness of judgment and his well-known capacity for work, Mr. Rumberger is eminently fitted for this office. It is conceded on every hand that his nomination will insure the election of a Republican to the of-fice of county treasurer. Vote for Rumberger for treasurer! He is capable! He is worthy! He and his friends will appreciate the favor!

FORMER DUBOIS GIRL NOW BRIDE OF INDIA MILLIONAIRE

Miss Daisy Litsinger Leaps From Chorus to Wealth

The romance of Miss Daisy Lit-singer formerly of DuBois culminat-ed a few days ago, when she was mar-ried to Ford Humbolt Keith a young millionaire of India. Mr. Keith met Miss Litsinger two years ago, when she was singing in a chorus in a Paris theatre. Mr. Keith fell in love with her at their first meeting and propos-ed marriage to her.

She refused him, however on the grounds that she did not desire to live in India. Three times after-ward the persistent Keith proposed, once in Chicago, once in London and then in Philadelphia, a few weeks ago where his persistence was rewarded. The couple were married last week and are now on their wedding trip to their future home in Indiana.

PRESBYTERIANS ARE TO HOLD SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY

Next Sunday the Presbyterians will hold their Sunday School rally at 11:45 and their Young People's Meet-ing rally at 7 o'clock. The past year has been a record breaker for the Sunday school, and the officers wish to make this year better still.

There has only been three Sun-days during the past year that the at-tendance has not been better than that of the corresponding Sunday of the year before. There has been an increase of between 25 and 50 per cent. in the attendance during the past year. Porfessor Youngman's bible class has made the greatest gain of any class in the school, having reached the 50 mark in attendance.

The pastor wishes next Sunday to be a red letter day in both the school and the Young People's meeting, and wishes all the members to strive to be there.

The dedication was accompanied by impressive ceremonies in which state officials of New York, members of the battlefield commission and surviving veterans of the Fourteenth Regiment took part. The monument is of Quincy granite and stands 15 feet high. A bronze tablet relates the story of the battle, giving the dates and the names of those who fell in the conflict.

CLEARFIELD FIREMEN PAY HIGH TRIBUTE TO KLINE

Endorse Him For County Treasurer at Recent Meeting

Al Kline, the popular Clearfield business man, who is a candidate for the office of county treasurer on the Republican ticket, received a warm endorsement from the Firemen of Clearfield at a recent meeting of that organization. Recognizing his sterling worth, the Firemen pledged themselves to vote for Mr. Kline at the primaries, and to give him their undivided support should he win the nomination next week. This endorse-met was entirely unsolicited by Mr Kline, and is a distinct compliment to him which may serve as a guide to the voters of the county who may want to know how he stands in his own home town. Mr. Kline is the only one of the 55 candidates now in the field who has been similarly hon-ored.

Mr. Kline stands for a straight business administration of the county's affairs. A successful busi-ness man himself, he is qualified in every respect for the position to which he aspires, and will render ef-ficient honest and loyal service to the county if he is elected.

ONE CENT A MEAL FOR ONE YEAR.

In almost every house there are practically one thousand meals a year prepared on the stove. Many people hesitate about paying five or ten dollars more to secure a reliable range—one that will cook these thousand meals a year with the least trouble and at the lowest cost. If you should add one cent to the cose of every meal for the first year only, you would soon make up the difference between the cheap range and the range that will last a lifetime.

Suppose your cheap range uses one cent's more of fuel in cooking each meal, or only three cents' worth more a day. In one year this range has cost you ten dollars extra—ten dollars more for fuel than the better range. Every year means that much more money burned up.

Suppose the better range does cost ten dol-lars more at first than the cheap one. The ex-tra cost is nothing—it amounts to only one cent a meal. It will save you one cent a meal in fuel alone. In one year it will save the extra cost, and in ten years it will save you one hundred dollars, not counting what you save missing big repair bills.
